Alpena Power Marketing, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

December 1, 1997.

Alpena Power Marketing, L.L.C. (Alpena Marketing) filed an application for authorization to engage in the wholesale sale and brokering of electric capacity and energy at market-based rates, and for certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, Alpena Marketing requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liabilities by Alpena Marketing. On November 13, 1997, the Commission issued an Order Accepting For Filing Proposed Market-Based Rates (Order), in the above-docketed proceeding.

The Commission's November 13, 1997 Order granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraphs (D), (E), and (F):

(D) Within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by Alpena Marketing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214.

(E) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (D) above, Alpena Marketing is hereby authorized to issue securities and assume obligations and liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Alpena Marketing, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(F) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of Alpena Marketing's issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities. Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is December 15, 1997.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

Colt Electric Corporation; Notice of Issuance of Order

December 1, 1997.

Colt Electric Corporation (Colt) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which Colt will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. Colt also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Colt requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Colt.

On November 17, 1997, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Rate Applications, Office of Electric Power Regulation, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Colt should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, Colt is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Colt's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is December 17, 1997. Copies of the full text of the order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426.

Enron Power Marketing, Inc.; Order Accepting Rate Schedule for Filing, as Modified, Granting Waiver of Notice, and Announcing Policy Concerning Reassignment of Transmission Capacity by Power Marketers

Before Commissioners: James J. Hoecker, Chairman; Vicky A. Bailey, and William L. Massey

Issued November 28, 1997.

In this order, we accept for filing Enron Power Marketing, Inc.'s (Enron Marketing's) proposed rate schedule for reassignment of transmission rights, subject to certain modifications. We also inform all power marketers of an amendment to their existing rate schedules pertaining to reassignment of transmission rights, and waive the prior notice and filing requirements with respect to reassignments of transmission capacity by power marketers.

Background

On October 3, 1997, Enron Marketing submitted for filing a proposed tariff for the sale, assignment, or transfer of transmission rights procured under any open access transmission rate schedule by Enron Marketing on the transmission system of any transmission provider.

Enron Marketing's rate schedule provides that the charges for such transmission service would be capped at
